

AIR 1 is very important to me and my family. It's the only station I send a cash donation to. Substituting a LPFM broadcaster could be very upsetting, since we would miss the programming. It serves the public interest because it promotes good character in young people like my son. It promotes good behavior like abstinence and show good ways to be happy without drugs, alcohol, sex, gambling, misbehavior.

Marie Fordtner